Our 35 sofa is known as a Bridgewater style, meaning that it has low, shaped arms that are set back slightly from the seat cushions. It's one of our top 10 frames and maybe that's because the loose back and seat cushions provide just the right amount of ease for relaxation. That's a lot of talk and we haven't even gotten to all of the customized options - hence the name "Choices". Two seat depths, custom lengths, eleven arm designs, three back styles, skirt or two leg bases, three nail patterns, and a slipcover option are available to create your original sofa.
